Controlled Slip for Object Release

Learning to detect slip direction and velocity in order to gently place of objects on a table

Estimating surface properties during the slip actions

Learn control policies to regulate slip velocities as the object is placed on the table.